myFM 90.5 Exeter/ Grand Bend is tremendously proud to have had the honour of supporting the recent South Huron Hospital Foundation Radiothon. The Radiothon took place on Friday, October 21 at Hansen's Your Independent Grocer. All proceed from this year's Radiothon went towards Jessica's House –a residential hospice created to serve the South Huron area. Results are still being totalled, but despite a goal of $68000, so far an outstanding $91000 has been raised.

"myFM was a critical part of the process... the local radio station gives the community identity.. It is live, it is real and it is up to date... absolutely essential." Executive Director of the South Huron Hospital Foundation, Kimberly Payne

"Our team at myFM continually raises the bar on being outstanding local broadcasters. I am so proud they are part of the MBC family. We thank our listeners on their on-going support." President of MBC, Jon Pole
