4	I enjoy reporting on local small town communities because it feels like people legitimately care about the stories because they may be a part of the organization or have a friend who owns a business we are talking about. I also really enjoy the support of everyone in the company. If there is an issue it gets fixed.	7/11/2016 2:24 AM
5	A few words won't do it justice. Proud to work for MBC for countless reasons	7/11/2016 1:50 AM
6	I love the reminder that we're valued and appreciated. Even as we grow, that hasn't stopped. Also the job security and freedom to be creative and not micro-managed is something I'll always love.	7/11/2016 1:26 AM
7	I walked in a graduate of Radio and Television Broadcasting but with years off since graduating. You guys gave this family man a chance to follow his dream and based off the retreat, I see that is not uncommon in this company. People first. Proud to my the shirt and represent the company.	7/11/2016 1:07 AM

18	The people, the atmosphere. It is nice to get up in the morning and say I am off to work today not I HAVE to go to work today again! - some are not so lucky.	7/5/2016 3:28 AM
19	It's a great work model. Inspires me to work hard and see accomplishments/goals met. It really is the best of 'Corporate meets Ma & Pa'. Lots of people ready to help as well. Great feeling of a team at work, no matter where we are in the province.	7/5/2016 2:41 AM
20	Everyone is so accepting and friendly, and willing to teach - which is great for a recent college grad like myself.	7/5/2016 2:35 AM
21	Always brag about how great the "family" is at MBC. It is getting to be a large company that operates like a small one. Because of our annual retreats, we have the ability to know everyone, and that really helps with the family feel. MBC's whole environment is never going to be perfect, but I think and feel that it is far above many companies, and there is that effort by upper management to value the employees which is apparent. The overall "air" of the workplace is a very easy one, and it is nice to get up and not "dread" going to work - which is how many MBCers feel I am sure. Kudos to Jon and Andrew for continuing to create that type of atmosphere. Thank you.	7/5/2016 2:30 AM
